VOL. VI. NO. 133.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, JUNE 5, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS.

GARRY HERMANN'S JUVENILE.

Garry Hermann fully demonstrated yesterday at Hawthorne that he is the best two-year-old colt that has shown up in the west thus far this season, and also made C. H. Smith, who purchased him for $10,000 Saturday, think better than ever of his bargain.

Garry Hermann, at 121 pounds, met Silverdale, 118, and two other youngsters, in the Juvenile Stakes, which was at five furlongs with a value of $1,800.

Garry Hermann and Silverdale had met twice before at Hawthorne and each had a win to his credit. The first time the pair met Silverdale made his opponent look cheap, and it was vice versa at the second meeting, but Burns was not up on the Schorr colt the second time the pair met, consequently there was a doubt in the minds of many as to which youngster was best. Garry Hermann, however, conceded three pounds of actual weight and jockey Burns to Silverdale yesterday, then beat him badly.

Never before in the history of Hawthorne was there such a Monday crowd out and it seemed that they were equally divided between Burns and Silverdale and Garry Hermann, consequently the race from a speculative standpoint was a hot one. It being even money and thereabouts and take your pick between the pair.

Mr. Smith, so he said, did not bet on his colt, but Jake Marklein, Garry's former owner, did, and bet on him good, too, remarking before the race that it was the best thing at the price that he ever saw. So it proved to be, for Garry Hermann simply took the Schorr colt by the head and galloped him to defeat in the first three furlongs, and after that loafed the remainder of the route, eventually winning in a canter by eight lengths.

The Steeplechase over the short course furnished the best contest of its kind seen thus far at the Cicero track this season. The field was very evenly balanced and the horse that won, Globe II., "delivered the goods" in such a game manner that it brought forth a great round of applause from the stand. Globe II. was carrying top weight 153 pounds and was the natural favorite, although he receded in the betting from 3 to 2 to 11 to 5. Eggerson, who rode Globe II., seems to "have it on the other boys," having won all of the races of this kind that have been run over the course this season, consequently the other riders, to a certain degree are envious of him, and in this event they tried to give him and the game horse that he rode the worst of it. Adams, who rode Van Brunt, in particular was out after Eggerson's scalp, and every time Globe II. would draw up near him he would strike him over the head with his whip. This in itself was handicap enough to beat almost any horse; but in regard to gameness Globe II. is far above the general run, and although he was six lengths behind the leader when the last fence was cleared he managed to work his way to the front, and at the winning mark was two lengths in front and going away. Frond was second and Viking third to Globe II.

Out of the fifth race, which was at nine furlongs, came one of those nodding finishes that you sometimes read about. It was between Star Chamber and Jim, and the former got the decision simply because it was her turn to be in front when the wire was reached. Some of Jim's backers made some noise about the decision, but coal-heavers cannot be judges, so their noise did not count for much.

Since the 1900 racing season opened around Chicago there has not been a race that could be compared with the last event from a betting standpoint. Gold Fox, Great Bend, Molo and Tenby were each backed royally at about 3 to 1 and before the race was run there was no end of talk in regard to the relative merits of the different horses. Gold Fox, however, proved to his admirers that he was the best and cleverly beat Great Bend by three-quarters of a length. Molo finished third a neck in front of Tenby.

The initial event was rather easy for The Bobby, who was backed down two points from 5 to 1, and Nobleman, a 20-to-1 chance, was a neck in front of Orimar at the finish in the second race. In the latter event Bangle was a 1 to 4 favorite, but he sulked all through the stretch, finishing a bad third.

Judge Kuhl was asked by an outsider before the first race what condition the track was in. Kuhl, who is very reticent, stated he did not know, but remarked that Pat Dunne had timed one of his horses a quarter in 21 seconds in the morning and then immediately sent his watch to the jewelers.

Harry Robinson bought Strangest from "Texas" Smith yesterday for $1,000, and scratched him out of the last race to clear the road for Molo.

Hawthorne track is fast getting into racing shape. Gold Fox ran a mile in 1:41, which is the fastest time made this season.

On the strength of a workout Sunday in 1:43 Tenby was made the subject of a big plunge in the last race.

Jockeys Ross and Dupee, who have been doing a lot of crowding in their races of late, were called into the stand by Judges Kuhl and Trevathan and given to understand that they were being closely watched and must ride clean in the future or suffer severe discipline.

Jockey Adams narrowly escaped being set down for foul riding by signing a contract to go east and ride for W. C. Daly. Judges Kuhl and Trevathan had him on their list, but concluded to let him go unpunished on the understanding that he will leave Hawthorne at once.

Thomas Magee arrived at Hawthorne with his stable yesterday. Frank Rector, who is training for Mart Jordan, also got in with two jumpers.

Frond, who ran to the place in the steeplechase, is only 14 1-2 hands high, and is said to be the smallest cross-country animal on the turf. Gwynne Tompkins says she is one of the neatest jumpers he ever handled. Mrs. Hooe, wife of Tompkins' partner, has been riding the filly during the past winter.

NO LICENSE FOR DUGAN.

The License Committee of the American Turf Congress met at the Wellington Hotel Sunday afternoon, and after a lengthy consideration of the application of Jockey Dugan for a license, rendered the following decision:

"In the case of Jockey Clinton Dugan, upon application for a license, the committee rules as follows:

"The boy was ruled off by Captain James H. Rees and Mr. Harry Kuhl, experienced and competent officials, who adjudged him guilty. As they have confirmed their opinion as to his guilt, and there being no satisfactory evidence adduced in contravention, the committee, after a careful investigation, herewith denies the application of said Dugan for license.

MERITED GOOD FORTUNE.

Concerning the prominent figures cut this season by the two-year-olds in the stable of Fleischmann Sons, the New York Sun of Friday says:

"The sons of Charles Fleischmann do not seem to have anything but good two-year-olds in their stable this season. Everything that they have started for big money has got it and one colt that they have been content to run in overnight races only, seems to be as good as the stake winners. This colt is Blues, a day, by Belvidere, out of Bonnie Blue II., and a product of the breeding establishment of James Galway, at Preakness, N. J. Blues made his debut at Aqueduct in a cheap affair, but had bad luck on the turn and was beaten. He was kept under cover at Morris Park meeting and started at Gravesend last Monday. He took Green B. Morris's crack colt, Schoolmaster, into camp very handily, and just to show that there was nothing of the fluke character in that victory, William Fleischmann started him again yesterday. He won right back in handsome style, beating Eugene Leigh's Delmarch, Wyndham's Vouch and Philip J. Dwyer's Humboldt in clever fashion. Vouch and Humboldt do not amount to a great deal just now, but Delmarch seems to be improving every day, so that Blues' success was highly satisfying. He is a big colt, with a nice, smooth action, and will develop into a stayer from all appearances. Moreover, he is quick on his feet and attains top speed without having to run a mile or so."

"The Fleischmanns have always been popular on the Metropolitan Circuit because there has never been the slightest breath of scandal about the running of their horses. They are always trying, and when one of them is beaten it is because he has met a better horse. The Fleischmann horses are well trained and well managed, and are not run in the interest of any clique of heavy gamblers. The stable was pretty successful last season, when it had Maribert and one or two other good two-year-olds, but it seems to be better off this year. The respective abilities of Bonibert and Irritable are, of course, stable secrets, but on public form either of them is superior to anything else that has appeared in these parts, and the pair will have to be accepted as the champions until they are beaten in a fair and square race. Irritable's success in the race for the Eclipse Stakes on the closing day at Morris Park was quite as easy as Bonibert's victory in the National Stallion Race on the preceding Saturday. Irritable is a Tennessee-bred colt by Gen. W. H. Jackson's famous English Derby winner, Iroquois, out of the mare Toribera. Bonibert comes from the Adelbert stock at Hopkinsville, Ky. Capt. Cyrus Radford of the United States Marine Corps and Col. Williams are the breeders. He is by the famous stallion Albert out of Bonnie Ola. Bonibert is a full brother to Walter C. Rollins' three-year-old Herbert, who ran so gallantly in the Brooklyn Handicap, and he will make a better horse. He is quicker in the beginning of a race and has more size. He looks as though he would be able to carry weight well. Herbert's last two races would seem to indicate that he prefers 95 or 100 pounds to 115 or 118.

"The Fleischmanns are depending on two-year-olds altogether this season. They disposed of all their good horses at public auction last year, and will probably have another sale again this summer. Next year they will race horses of their own breeding, and when their stud gets in good shape they will cease to buy yearlings. Their principal stallion is Halma, one of the greatest of the sons of the mighty Hanover. Halma ran most of his races in the west in the colors of the late Byron McClelland, and they paid $22,000 for him when he was on the verge of a breakdown. They did not win him out in races, but they hope to get even on his progeny. Halma is big and strong and healthy, and the choicest thoroughbred blood flows in his veins. His dam, Julia L., was a good mare herself, and, besides Halma she has

HOW ETHELBERT WON.

Jean Beraud was the first out for his preliminary gallop. He was given a breather that showed him to be possessed of his old burst of speed, and he came back with his wind even and his eyes glistening. Ethelbert, however, was like a wild horse. He flew by the grand stand in a manner that made many think Maher had lost control of him. Returned to the paddock he showed hardly a hair dampened by perspiration. He was as hard as nails, fitted to the acme of perfection.

After being sponged off the two thoroughbreds together trotted out on to the track again. As they cantered past the grandstand on the way to the post a clapping of hands greeted them that sounded not unlike a volley of rifle shots, beginning at one end of the stand and ending at the other, to be taken up by the thousands in the so-called free field. The applause was for both horses. Each was a favorite.

If the demonstration when the racers appeared was noisy and enthusiastic, it was pandemonium when, a few minutes later the announcement was made that they were off.

Together the two splendid pieces of horse flesh came flying down the track between crowds that lined the fences on both sides. They were maintaining a terrific pace as they tore past the judge's stand and were running as a team. It was stride for stride, with no advantage, except that Ethelbert had that shade which belongs to the horse that runs on the rail.

Watches were without reason doubted, because they showed the first quarter in 23 1/2 seconds. Then when the half-mile post was reached in forty-eight seconds, old horsemen said it was the race of the century.

Neither thoroughbred had as yet displayed a signal of distress, and they were running with their muzzles on a line when the three-quarters was reached in 1 minute 13 2-5 seconds.

Jean Beraud kept on to the end of the next furlong, and then announced to his jockey that he had had enough, thanking him very kindly. Seven furlongs in 1:26 1/2 was enough of a race to satisfy any thoroughbred, but it was only a warming up gallop for Ethelbert.

Maher leaned forward a bit further and the game son of Eothen shot forward so rapidly that many thought Jean Beraud had broken down. But it was not so, Jean Beraud was all right, only Ethelbert had decided to part company with him.

On came the bay colt, carrying his impost of 126 pounds as though it were a feather's weight. He made the run in 1:41 1/2, and was then running alone and at his own pace. He came home many lengths ahead of the tired Jean Beraud. At the finish—and it is literally true—his breathing was so even that it would not have disturbed the flame of a candle held six inches from his nostrils.

It was a superb effort.

As the horses swung into the stretch and it was seen that Ethelbert was a certain and an easy winner, Mr. Whitney turned to Mr. Belmont, and said:

"I congratulate, Mr. Belmont, on owning the best horse I have ever seen. I believe he is the horse of the century."

Accepting Mr. Whitney's congratulations, Mr. Belmont said that he believed the compliment was deserved by Ethelbert, which, he added, has always done more than has been expected of him.

As the winner trotted back to the judges' stand there was a wild rush of spectators, men and women, who wished to get a closer view of the handsome colt. As a stable boy caught his bridle rein, Ethelbert pawed the dusty track and bowed again and again at his admirers. There were those who were convinced that he understood it all, and was really making acknowledgement of the ovation which was his.—New York Herald.

produced MacLeod of Dare and several other fast race horses. Neither Julius Fleischmann, the recently elected Republican Mayor of Cincinnati, nor Captain Max, his brother and racing partner, has been in the east this season, but they are expected by William Fleischmann some time during the June session of the Coney Island Jockey Club. Irritable and Bonibert are both eligible for the Double Event and the Great Trial Stakes, the principal two-year-old races to be run at Sheepshead Bay, and if they keep well they will fill their dates. Blues is one or two of the smaller stakes. The chances are that the Fleischmann youngsters will all be running at Coney Island. They escaped the coughing epidemic that broke out at Morris Park. The epidemic is now happily over, and most of the crack youngsters in other big stables will be racing before the Gravesend meeting is finished."

Winner—Ch. f, by Inspector B.—Pansy Blossom.
Went to post at 2:20. Off at the first break to a good start. Won whipped out and tiring; second and third were under pressure. The Bobby took the shortest route and was lucky. He came through with a fine burst of speed at the head of the stretch, but Miller took no chances and punished him hard all through the last eighth. For a new beginner Lake Mills ran a good race and should win a maiden race the first time asked. Maccabee is not much. He was well ridden and had no excuses. Prætorian was never dangerous. Stites and Lydia S. used what speed they had early and both tiring badly in the stretch.
The Bobby, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Lake Mills, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Maccabee, show, evens. Prætorian, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Top Gallant—Lizzie English.
Went to post at 2:45. Off at the first break to a good start. The entire field was driving to the limit. Nobleman took the shortest route and for once in numerous starts was well handled. Kiley waited in on the rail until the natural spread at the head of the stretch came, then he made a quick, sharp move with Nobleman, and the colt glided by the leaders like a flash. Orimar showed fine speed and was well handled, still Ross could have won had he shut Nobleman off at the head of the stretch. Bangle pinned his ears on the far turn and sulked through the last three furlongs. Miss Ross showed her usual turn of speed. Tyrba ran a good race for him.
Scratched—(18141) Hermoso, 124; 14708 Fly by Night, 109.
Nobleman, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 5. Orimar, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Bangle, place, out. Miss Ross, place, 2 to 1; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Br. g. by Little Minch—Gwendoline.
Went to post at 3:25. Off at the first break to a good start. Won handily at the end after a terrific drive early. Globe II. is a good, game gelding and is a crackerjack at the jumping game. He underwent all kinds of trouble during the journey, being bumped and jostled several times and also whipped over the face by the boy on Van Brunt. At the last fence Globe II. did not seem to have a chance to get up, but he did, and at the end was going away. Frond, differently ridden than she was when last out, ran an altogether different race. She is a neat jumper, but is hardly big enough to carry much weight through the field over a great distance. Viking ran a fair race. Monita stumbled and almost fell at the eighth obstruction. Becky Rolfe was always prominent, as were Lord Chesterfield and Van Brunt. It was a pretty contest throughout.
Scratched—18235 Zufallig, 136.
Corrected weights—Globe II., 153 pounds.
Globe II., place, evens; show, 1 to 2. The entry, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Viking, show, 4 to 5. Lord Chesterfield, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Br. c. by Escher—Silk Gown.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won pulled to a walk; second and third eased up. Garry Hermann now enjoys the title of being the champion two-year-old shown up in the west thus far. He took Silverdale at such a clip in the first three eighths that he made the latter stop and then Garry Hermann only cantered home. Sortie did well for a new beginner. He is a fine looker and can be marked for early action.
Scratched—18233 Miss Bennett, 120.

Winner—B. c. by St. Blaise—Sonny Lass.
Went to post at 4:35. Off at the first break to a good start. The first two were driving to the limit and out to the last ounce. It was a very close finish and Star Chamber won simply through the action of the nod. He is a game colt and stopped and then came again in the stretch. Jimp was keyed up to the highest pitch, heavily backed and ran an excellent race. Ross may have been a trifle overconfident in the last fifty yards, still, the horse was tiring and it would hardly have done for him to have gone to the whip. Trimmer ran his usual consistent race. Vain was giving away a lot of weight and was worn out by pacemaking.
Star Chamber, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Jimp, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Trimmer, show, 3 to 2. Vain, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Thomas Carey, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Silver Fox—Carita.
Went to post at 5:05. Off at the first break to a good start. Won hand ridden; second, third and fourth driving to the limit. Gold Fox is in fine form, was well ridden and won like a good horse. Great Bend broke flying, set a terrific pace, but was stopping a trifle at the finish. Molo about ran his race. Tenby may have been a trifle short. He was used a lot chasing Great Bend in the first part of the race and when the pinch came had nothing to finish with. Rinaldo II. and Teucer were beaten off at the finish. This was one of the most lively betting races of the season.
Scratched—18174 Donna Rita, 105; 18237 Strangest, 106; 18144 Hub Prather, 103; 17802 Title, 107; (18081) Lady Medlesome, 101.

Lackland ran an improved race. Mazo did well. Dr. Eichberg quit in the last quarter.

Scratched—18152 Hardy C. 136; 17908 Chagrass, 132. Governor Griggs, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Lackland, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Mazo, show, 3 to 5. Dr. Eichberg, place, 4 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Br. c. by St. Florian—Queentown. Went to post at 3:11. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Quiz ran a game race and won entirely on his courage. Dangman could not help him much. Beau Gallant should have won, but he was in a pocket all the way until near the finish. Turner did not get an opening until it was too late. Glennellie showed a great turn of speed and fought it out when caught. Moor was interfered with at the sixteenth post.

Winner—B. c. by Azra—Starlight. Went to post at 3:42. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Orontas had a rough journey, but stood it up in time under strong riding. Scales was outrun in the first part of the race, but closed fast at the end. Long Isle was held out of it too long. Redpath had clear sailing, but was probably short as he stopped badly in the last furlong. The race will improve him.

18181	LAUDEMAN	5	90	6	7 1/2	9	9	9	Dangman	J Vaughn	20	30	20	30

Time, 12 1/2, 25, 37 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:02 1/2, 1:15 1/2, 1:43.

Winner—Ch. h. by Victory—Quesal. Went to post at 4:55. At post 15 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Maximo Gomez was prominent throughout and saved ground on the stretch turn, but had to be hustled hard to stall off Firearm. The latter got off poorly, made up ground gradually, and was galloping easily when turning into the stretch, but tired when called on. His weight was too much for him. Charentus showed plenty of early speed. Kinnickinick appeared dangerous in the last furlong, but tired near the end. Survivor ran a good race.

Scratched—18241 Hammock, 104; 18253 Ten Candles, 104; 18155 Jack Point, 100; 17732 Montanico, 100. Maximo Gomez, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Firearm, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Charentus, show, 4 to 5. Kinnickinick, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

18275 SIXTH RACE—About 3-4 Mile. $700 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. c. by Albert—Luminous. Went to post at 5:31. At post 11 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. The first two had the race between them all the way. Her Ladyship was best at the weights, but Phelan could not finish with Bullman. Gaze is rounding to. She ran a fair race from behind and stood a drive in the stretch. Tinge will do to watch. Manitoban did not run her race. Kamara had no excuses.
